PROFESSIONAL PROFILE

I am Ray Lui, a passionate creative professional with a strong interest in design and photography. Before moving to Canada, I worked at Good Hope School in Hong Kong, where I was responsible for design projects, organizing events, and teaching children how to draw. I also guided students in participating in various competitions to help them gain valuable experience. Design is not just a job for me—it is my passion and pursuit. I am always eager to take on new challenges and willing to explore different opportunities to grow. I would love the chance to connect with you in an interview. Thank you for your time!
